	ID	Intent	Clinical Objective	NVC Parameters (Target)	Feedback
	010	Professional Introduction	Establish initial trust and empathetic authority	Face: Slight smile (empathetic, non-alarming). Gaze: Constant eye contact (>80%). Posture: Open and upright.	"Try a slight smile to welcome the family in this first contact."
	020	Offers Companion	Demonstrate concern and care (protection)	Face: Concern/Attention (Eyebrows slightly drawn together). Gaze: Sustained (>70%). Posture: Slightly leaning forward, relaxed shoulders.	"Your expression indicates too much neutrality. Show concern when asking."
	030	Asks what is known about the case	Question if the patient's case and investigation have already been explained (active listening)	Face: Neutral/Attentive. Gaze: Constant eye contact (>80%). Posture: Open, nod slightly while listening, relaxed shoulders.	"Maintain constant eye contact to encourage the family member."
	040	Understanding of the Diagnosis	Verification of understanding (checking), critical and technical moment	Face: Slightly serious, calm, but patient. Gaze: Fixed on the eyes (conveys truth, >95%). Posture: Open and upright.	"Do not look away when talking about brain death. Convey confidence."
	050	Explanation of the Evolution	Availability and transparency	Face: Neutral and patient. Gaze: Calm, but attentive (>70%). Posture: Slightly leaning forward. Optional: Hands clasped (if visible) indicating offer of information.	"Maintain a receptive expression so that they feel comfortable to ask."
	060	About Medical Records and Rights	Ensure transparency and security to the family regarding the procedures	Face: Serious, confident and transparent. Gaze: Firm and direct eye contact (>80%). Posture: Open and upright.	"Maintain an open and receptive posture. Your expression needs to show confidence."
	070	Admission of Possible Failure	Validation of the family's feelings and professional humility	Face: Compassion and/or regret (Eyebrows slightly tilted). Gaze: Sustained eye contact (>70%). Posture: Slight forward lean.	"Your expression indicates too much neutrality. Try to soften your gaze to show genuine empathy."
	071	Offer of Conversation with Doctor	Offer additional specialized support	Face: Welcoming/Attention (Eyebrows slightly drawn together). Gaze: Constant eye contact (>80%). Posture: Open and upright.	"Maintain constant eye contact so the family member feels your support."
	072	Offer of a Break	Respect the family's time to assimilate the information	Face: Empathetic concern and patient. Gaze: Constant eye contact (>80%). Posture: Open, relaxed shoulders.	"Your expression needs to show empathetic concern. Try to be patient with the family member."
	080	Offer Spiritual Support	Emotional support beyond medicine	Face: Respectful and serene. (Slight smile) Gaze: Calm, but attentive (>70%). Posture: Slightly leaning forward, relaxed shoulders.	"Try a softened serene gaze when offering spiritual comfort."

	081	Press Release about Organ Donation	Respect the family's privacy in a neutral way	Face: Neutral and patient. Gaze: Sustained gaze (>70%) Posture: Relaxed, dropped shoulders.	"Maintain neutrality when asking about the family's privacy."
	090	Offer ICU Visit	Provide a humanized farewell	Face: Welcoming/Attention (Eyebrows slightly drawn together). Gaze: Focused and empathetic gaze (>85%) Posture: Leaning forward, relaxed shoulders.	"Try to show softness and constant eye contact."
	110	Offer of Organ Donation	Introduce the topic without appearing insensitive	Face: Serious, but serene. Gaze: Direct and continuous eye contact (>90%). Posture: Open and upright. Optional: Empty hands (if visible).	"Maintain constant eye contact to convey confidence and respect to the family member."
	120	Explanation about the Process	Educate and inform clearly and patiently	Face: Attentive and didactic (Neutral eyebrows). Gaze: Constant eye contact (>80%). Posture: Open and upright. Optional: Hands (if visible) in smooth and slow gestures.	"Avoid sudden movements when explaining the process. Maintain an attentive gaze."
	130	Offer of Donation (Acceptance)	Make the direct request, reframing the grief	Face: Empathetic and encouraging, but calm. Gaze: Fixed eye contact (>95%). Posture: Leaning forward, dropped shoulders.	"Maintain fixed and empathetic gaze. Lean forward to show connection and comfort to the family member."